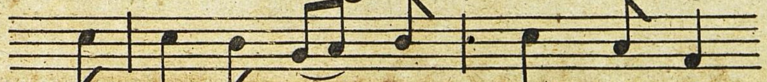
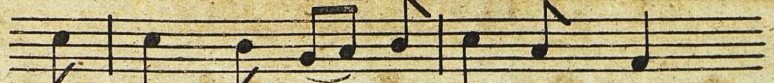
When stormy skies let loose their store
And Thunder swells its awful roar,
The sun's bright beams, the tempest o'er
Shed forth a sweeter ray.
Use well life's pleasures &c.

3



When e'er our path rough, dark extends
And grief her Spectre form protends
See! friendship to the good man lends
Her hand to guide his way.
Use well life's pleasures &c.

4



She dries his tears before him strews
Sweet flow'rs as to the grave he goes
On nights dread gloom soft light she throws
And turns it into day.
Use well life's pleasures &c.
